Summary

Before departure	Before arrival in Pudong airport	After arrival in Pudong airport
▪ Inform your bank that you are travelling to China, to ensure that you can withdraw cash ▪ Ensure international mobile roaming is on for emergency ▪ Consider buying an eSIM ▪ Install and activate WeChat. ▪ Install a translator (Google Translate and/or Microsoft translate) ▪ Platforms like Google, Youtube, Facebook, Whatsapp, Instagram do not work in China without a VPN. Consider buying one or register for a trial version (Astrill is recommended) ▪ Arrange your Shanghai–Suzhou transportation	▪ Inform your Shanghai–Suzhou car operator if your flight is delayed	▪ Take cash at the airport ▪ Get a physical SIM card at the airport (China Unicom or China Mobile or China Telecom) or find a wifi rental

Airport Arrival Guide

1. Finger prints collection

When leaving the aircraft; non-Chinese citizens will be asked to go to a machine to collect your fingerprints. Scan your passport and the machine will give you instruction in your native language (i.e. the language associated to your passport). Follow the instructions and collect the ticket that the machine will release at the end of the data collection.

2. Arrival card

Upon your arrival in China, you will need to complete the Arrival Card and hand it over to the immigration officer. You can get a blank card before the immigration queue in airport. Click below link to learn more: https://chinaentryvisa.net/china-immigration-card-explained/
